

CLAS DSHB Humanities Scholar Award Application Form

The Developmental Studies Hybridoma Bank (DSHB) Humanities Scholar Award provides support to tenured CLAS faculty for an approved research project within the humanities, including the digital humanities.

Awards with budgets ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 may be used for professional travel, materials, hardware or personnel needed specifically for digital projects, or other defined research needs. Funds must be spent within two years of receipt of the award. Awards are expected to result in at least one of the following: a project for publication, a national/international presentation, or a grant application to a major external source such as the NEH or ACLS. Awardees will report briefly on their DSHB-funded activity at the close of the award period.

Following the due date found here, eligible faculty should complete this application and include a one-page narrative proposal along with a brief itemized budget. Budget requests may range from $1,000 to $3,000. The complete application, signed by the DEO(s) below, along with a two-page abbreviated CV focused on scholarly activities, must be sent to the Assistant to the Associate Dean for Research and Infrastructure, Catherine Moore at catherine-moore@uiowa.edu.

Applications are reviewed for approval by the CLAS Dean and Associate Deans.
